FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Elks Donate $3,500 to Flagler Animal Rescue Groups

Flagler Humane Society Volunteers Answer Questions and promote proactive animal care to keep our four legged friends happy and healthy.

PALM COAST, FL – Saturday October 1st, 2016 the Palm Coast Elks Lodge #2709 hosted a successful Animal Adopt-A-Thon where one kitten was adopted and two potential adoptions into loving homes were begun.

The Elks also donated $1,500 to the Flagler Humane Society, $1,500 Blue Moon Cat Sanctuary, and $500 to Community Cats. In addition, all the groups received food, litter, toys, and other supplies.

Jeannie Fontana Lodge Secretary and event organizer related “We try to help the community all we can, whether it’s humans or critters.”

The Elks hope to continue to support Animal Rescue Groups in Flagler.

The donations were made possible by a grant the Lodge received from the Elks National Foundation and member donations.

Event organizer Jeannie Fontana cuddles Kitten Poly.

Kitten Simone is adopted into a loving forever home.
